GLOBAL FOOTPRINT, LOCAL EXPERTISE

Global Insurance Law Connect is a diverse global network of law firms with insurance expertise. Each member is embedded in their own insurance market and has deep, local knowledge which can help you to solve your complex cross-border legal challenges. Each of our members has a real passion for the industry, allowing us to deliver solutions for today's fast-changing global marketplace. Our network currently consists of 21 firms, in 23 countries spread across 5 continents, and our footprint touches every area of insurance law.

FOR MEMBERS

We are a group of specialist law firms who provide best-in-class legal advice to insurers and reinsurers on the business of taking risk, delivering a global reach and depth of service that no one firm can deliver on its own.

Global Insurance Law Connect gives its members the opportunity to join a family whose roots lie in its commitment to be collaborative.

Our central account management for insurers means that we can knit together teams that can solve complex cross-border challenges for insurers while maintaining the personal service that comes from being part of a passionate team of local experts.

FOR INSURERS

Underwriting businesses – whether they operate in established centres or in the emerging markets – face numerous challenges. To tackle these, insurers and reinsurers regularly need legal advice that is tailored, international and relevant to the markets in which they operate. Our global network of legal firms was created to help you confidently face your insurance legal challenges.

We recognise the wide range of issues that re/insurers face today, and our vision and focus is to use the strength and depth of our network to help clients reduce the time and money they spend on managing risk, by delivering advice and strategic support to:

- help develop best-in-class products,
- advise on coverage,
- resolve disputes, manage claims and litigation, and
- understand the impact of regulation.

Our service is designed to provide you with knowledgeable insurance lawyers who are passionate about their markets and product lines. All we do is insurance law, and each and every member firm knows and understands the demands of your world.

The world of insurance is our world too.
